This one day comprehensive program will feature the following:

Implementing the Deficit Recovery Act in California: Long Term Care Medi-Cal Under the New Law

This panel will focus on issues that will impact California's seniors by application of the new Medi-Cal laws and will include tips and helpful guidelines for interpreting the law and its implications.

No Contest Clauses: Too Incredible for Hollywood

As the State Bar of California and the California Law Revision Commission struggle for reform, the opinions of the court continue to perplex and bewilder the average practitioner. Where are we? Where are we going? This panel will address these issues.

Recent Developments in Trusts, Guardianships, Conservatorships and Probate

This traditional program, presented each year at the Fall Program, will provide a summary of California and federal cases, statutes, tax rulings and regulations affecting trusts, guardianships, conservatorships and probate
